The map displays a grid of 36 numbered sections (1-36) covering Westboro, Massachusetts. The town's name and population, 'WESTBORO POP. 234', are centered on the map. A prominent road, labeled 'FAS', runs horizontally across the middle. A railroad line, labeled 'NORTHERN', runs diagonally from the bottom left. The Tarkio River flows through the bottom right, and Squaw Hollow is located in the lower right quadrant. Various creeks and streams are also depicted. The map is overlaid with a grid of dashed lines and solid lines, and the text 'R01-R09' is repeated in several locations. The map is labeled 'TARKIO' and 'SQUAW HOLLOW'.
