

The image displays a map of Union County, North Carolina, divided into eight sections, each labeled with a page number from 3 to 8. The map is overlaid with a blue grid. The sections are labeled as follows:

- Page 3 of 8: Located in the top-left section, showing the western part of the county and the town of Randleman.
- Page 4 of 8: Located in the top-middle section, showing the central part of the county, including the towns of Troy and Union City.
- Page 5 of 8: Located in the top-right section, showing the eastern part of the county, including the town of Union City and the area around the airport.
- Page 6 of 8: Located in the bottom-left section, showing the southwestern part of the county, including the town of Troy.
- Page 7 of 8: Located in the bottom-middle section, showing the central part of the county, including the towns of Troy and Union City.
- Page 8 of 8: Located in the bottom-right section, showing the southeastern part of the county, including the town of Union City.

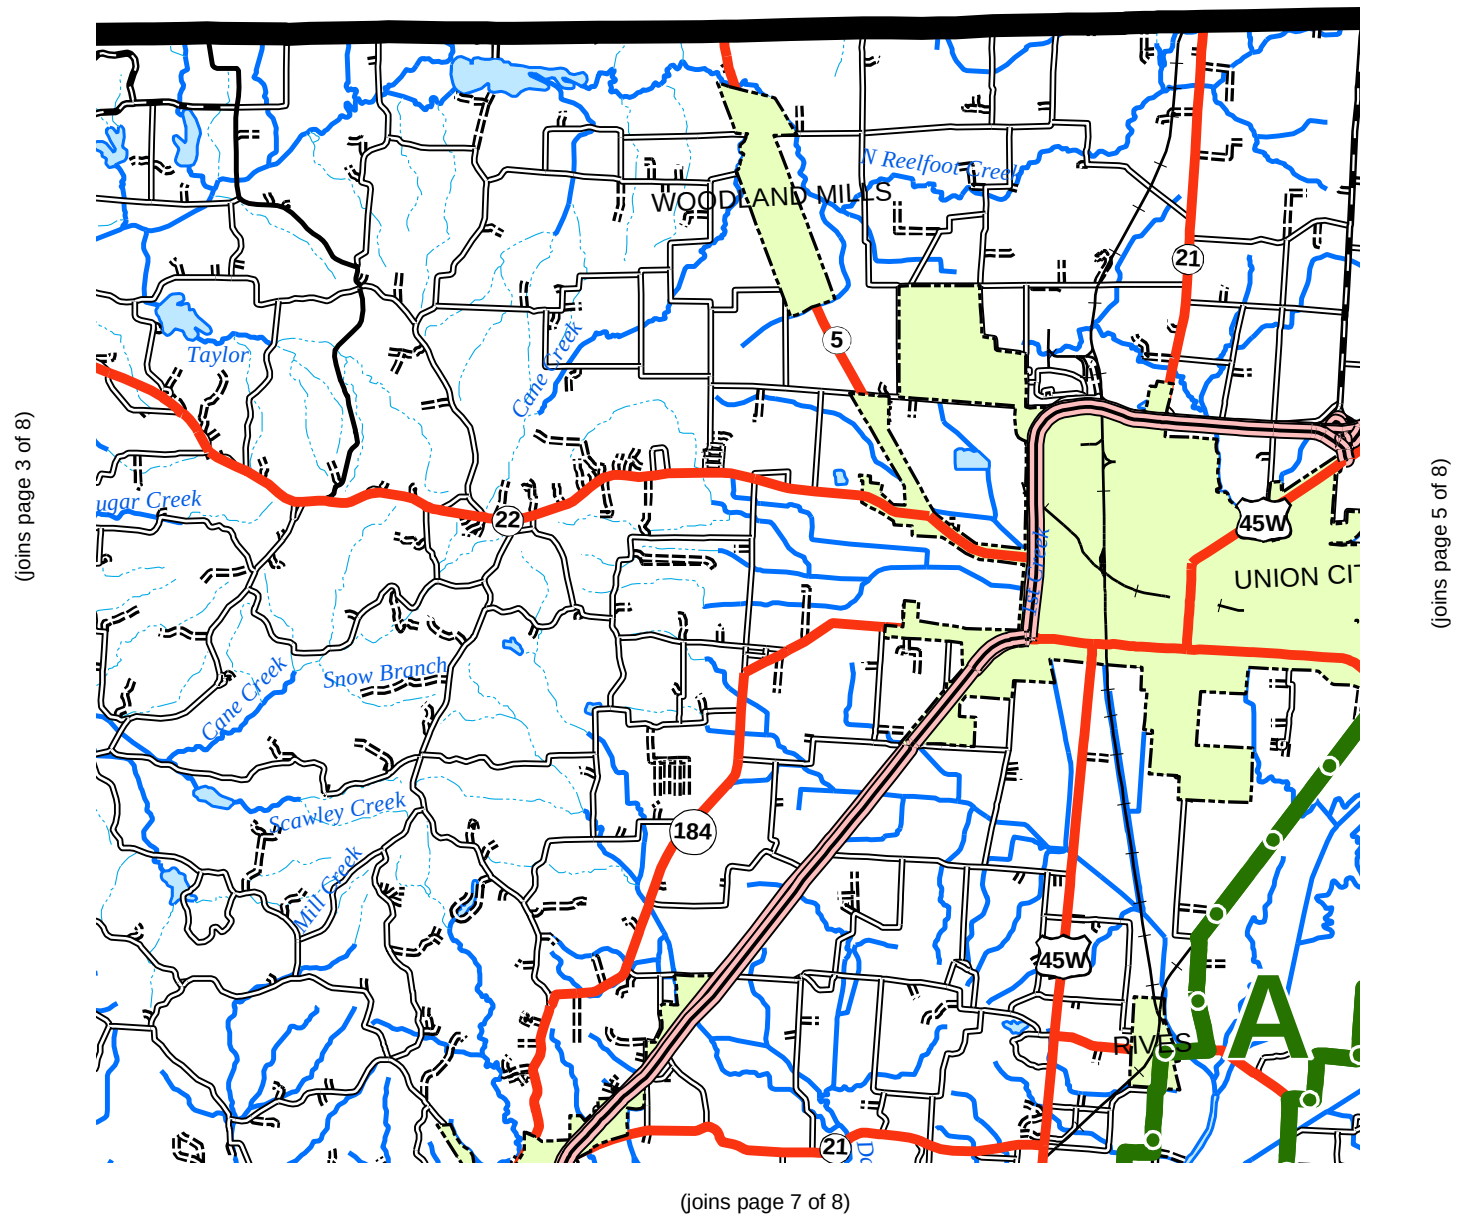

The map includes various geographical features such as roads, rivers, and towns. Major roads shown include US-421, US-158, and US-17. Towns and cities shown include Randleman, Troy, Union City, and the area around the airport. The map is overlaid with a blue grid.

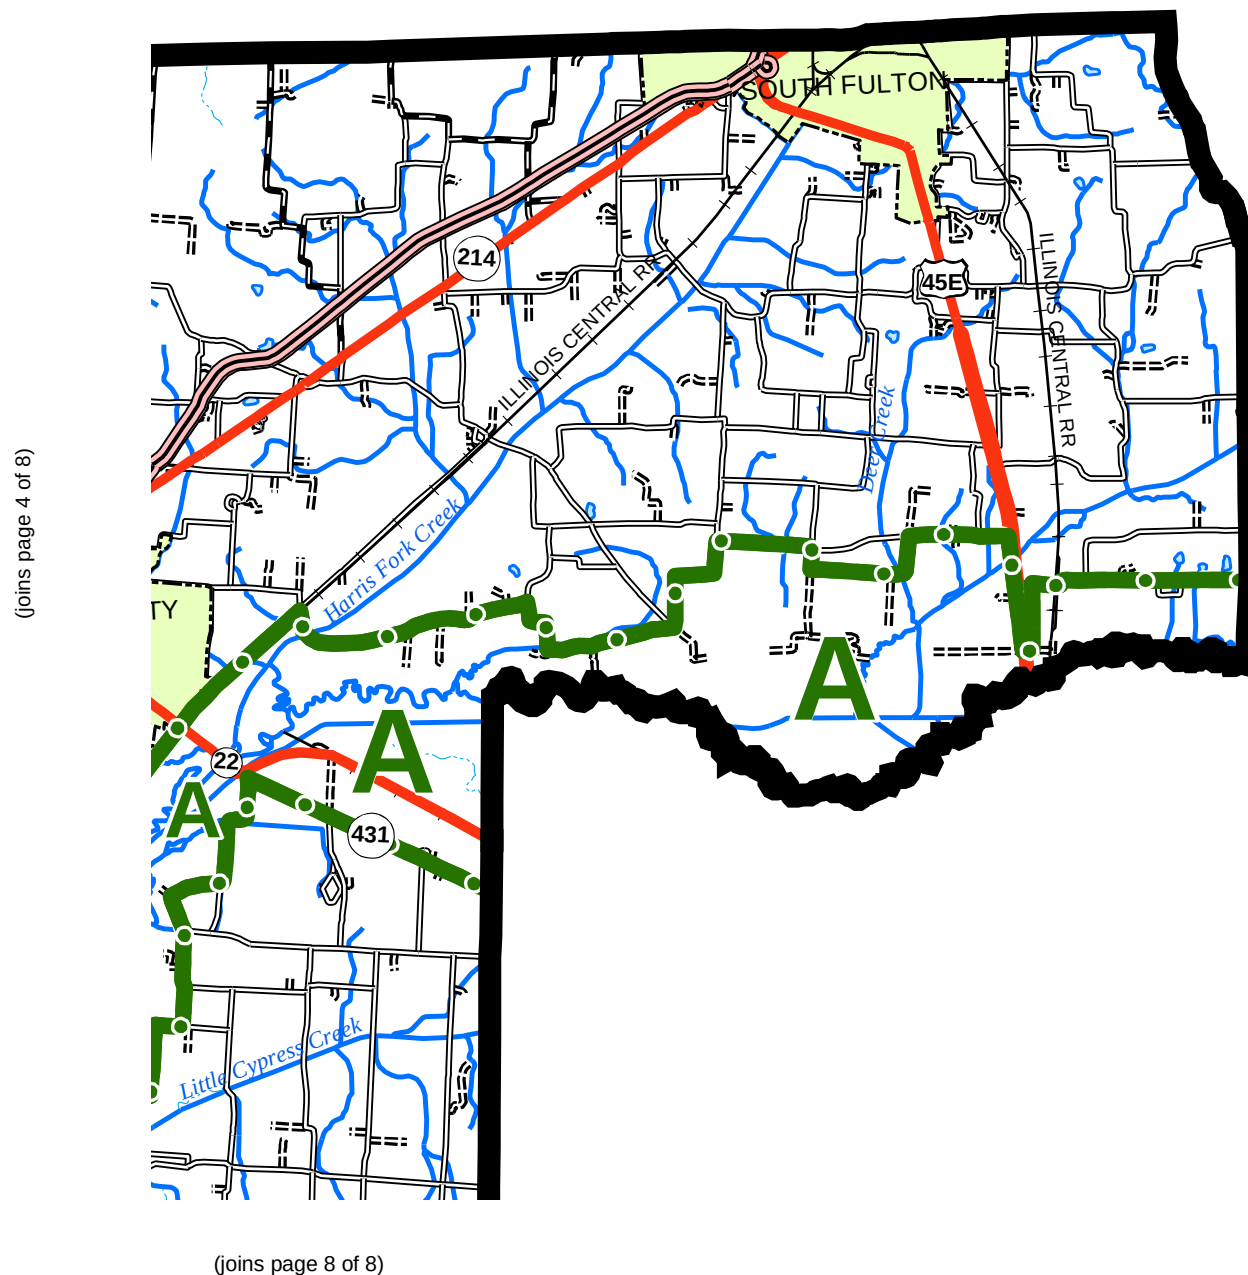

(joins page 6 of 8)

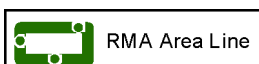

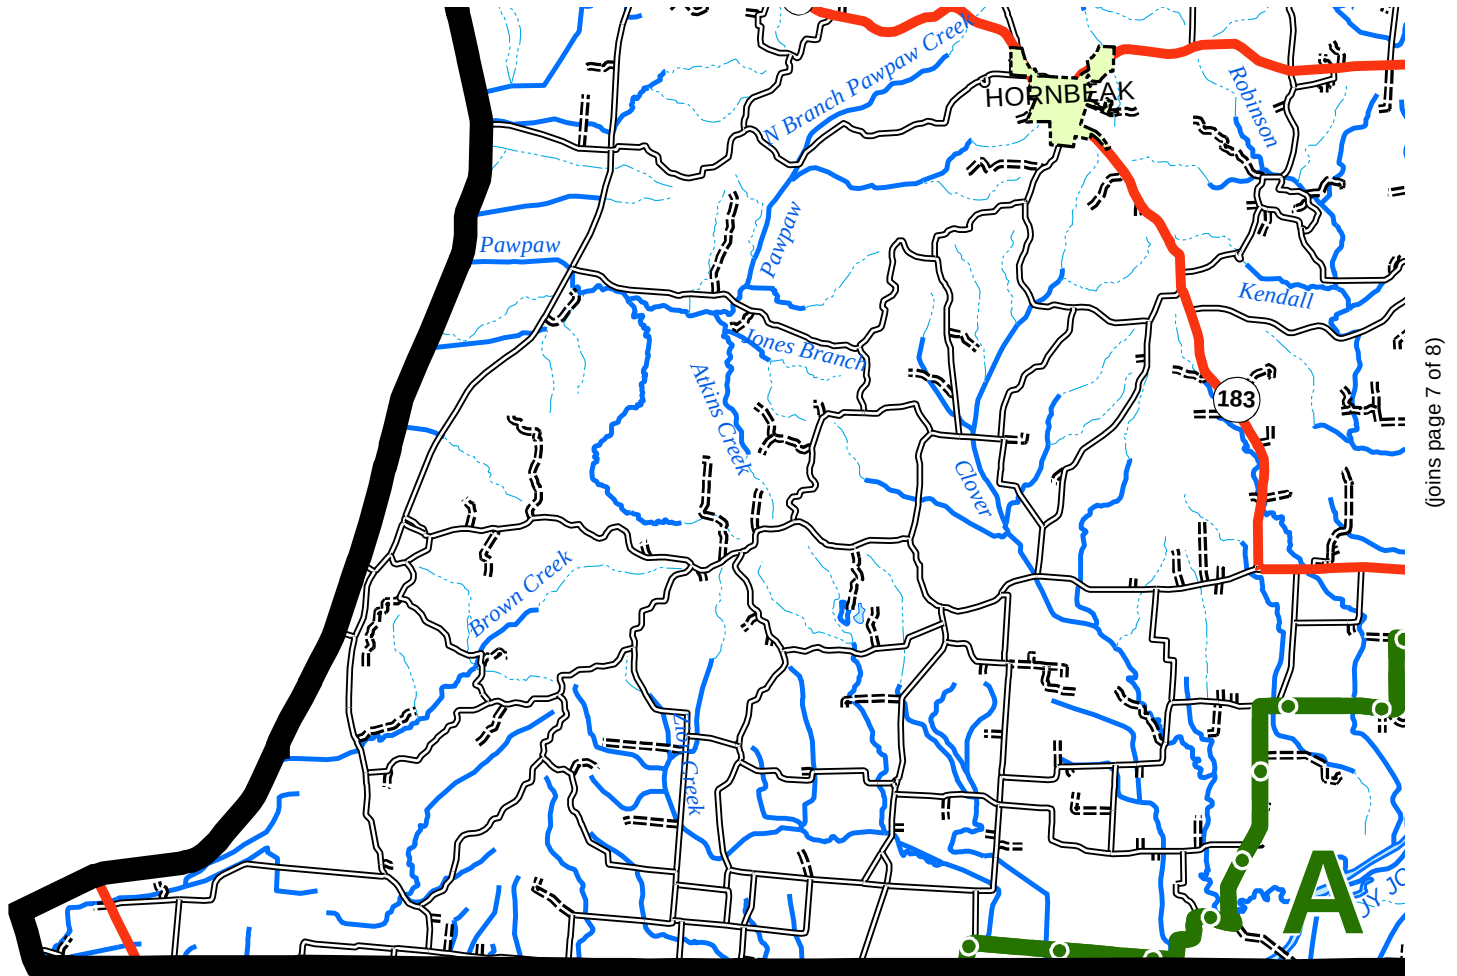

(joins page 4 of 8)

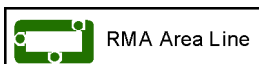

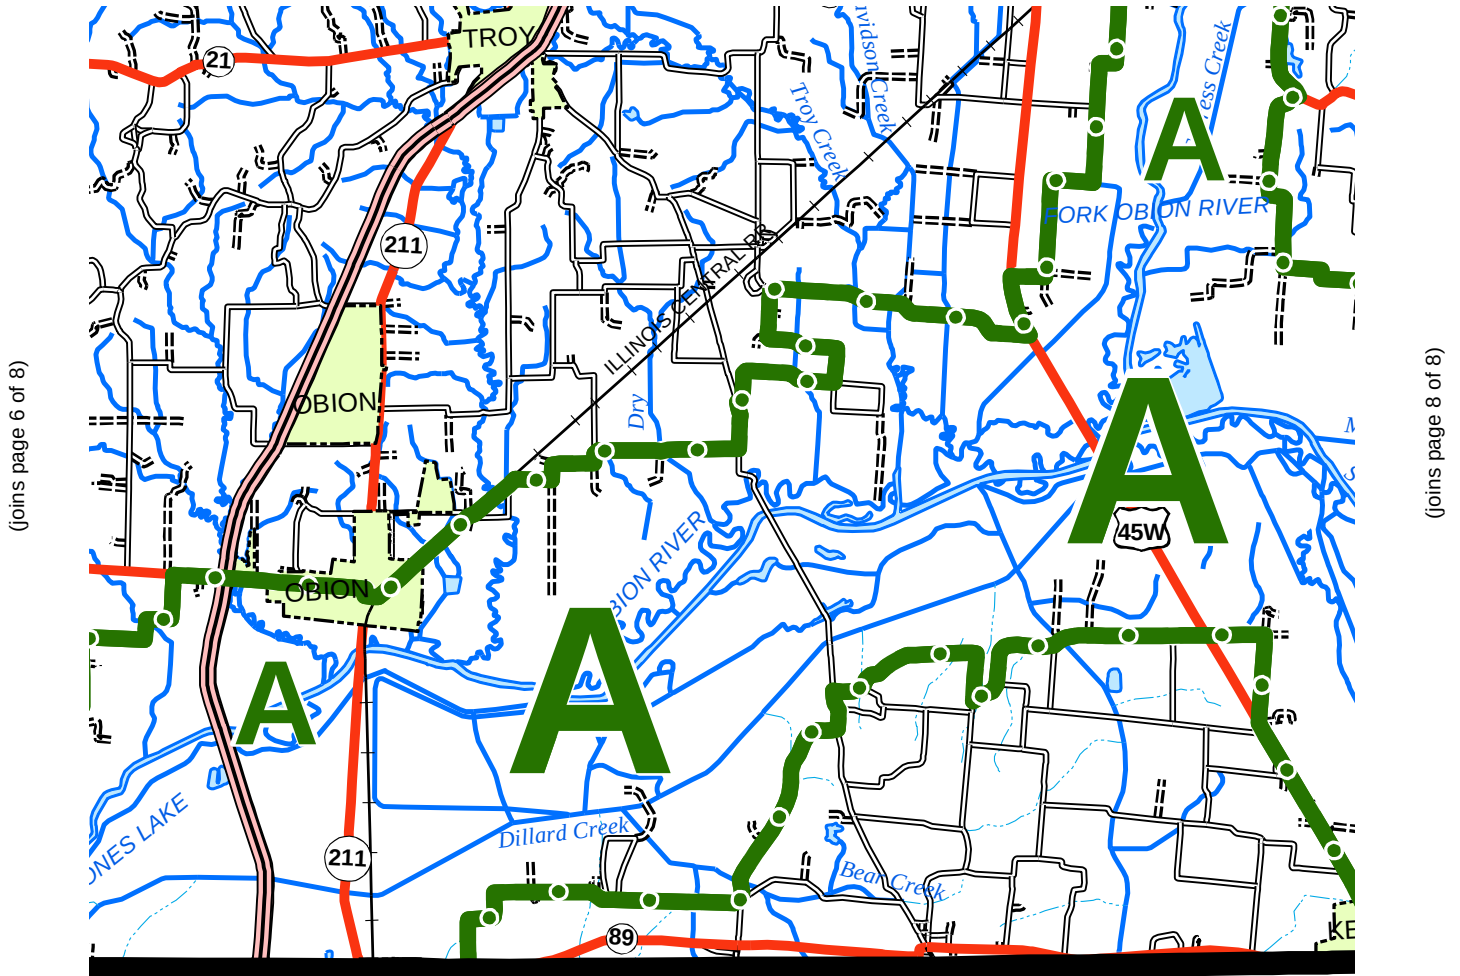

(joins page 3 of 8)

(joins page 4 of 8)

(joins page 5 of 8)

(joins page 7 of 8)

