General

Contact your agent regarding possible premium discounts, options, and/or additional coverage that may be available.

Corn planted on acreage following a crop that has been prevented from being planted will not be considered a cover crop and will be considered a crop planted for harvest.

Date

In lieu of the definition of late planting period in section 1 of the Basic Provisions, please refer to the End Of Late Planting Period Date.

Insurance Availability

Insurance shall attach to a crop following a cover crop when the cover crop meets the definition provided in the Basic Provisions, was planted within the last 12 months, and is managed and terminated according to NRCS Cover Crop Termination Guidelines. The Guidelines include information on cover crops and crop insurance, Good Farming Practices for cover crops, and termination information and exceptions, which can be found at <https://www.rma.usda.gov/en/Topics/Cover-Crops>.

Quality

GENERAL STATEMENTS:

For all quality adjustments, the following factors shall be considered:

For all quality adjustments, the following factors shall be considered in determining production to count:

For all quality adjustments, the following factors shall be considered in determining net production to count:

Qualifying for quality adjustment, that does not contain substances or conditions that are injurious to human or animal health, shall be adjusted under the following factors:

The AIP grants an extension of time to harvest as specified below, the samples of production used to determine insurable quality deficiencies under Sections A, B and C must be obtained in accordance with this Quality Adjustment Statement, but not later than 60 days after the calendar date for the end of the insurance period.

Any production qualifying under section B or C (except for section C3) that is sold* to other than a disinterested third party, or that is not sold 60 days after the calendar date for the end of the insurance period, shall be considered as sold for the purpose of this statement.

Production qualifying under Sections B or C (except for production qualifying under section C3) that is unsold 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, an automatic 30 day extension will be allowed only for the purpose of submitting your claim for indemnity, unless an extension of time to harvest has been granted or a delay in measurement of farm stored production has been elected under the general statements below.

For production qualifying for quality adjustment containing substances or conditions that are injurious to human or animal health will be determined in the following manner:

- For all quality adjustments, the following factors shall be considered:
- Sections C1 or C2 and Section B below, the DF will be determined by adding the applicable DFs from Section B to the applicable DFs from Sections C1 or C2.
- For all quality adjustments, the following factors shall be considered:

1. OPTION TO DELAY CLAIM SETTLEMENT

- a. On the date of final inspection for the unit, if any of your unsold* production qualifies for quality adjustment under sections B and/or C1 or C2a ii and C2a iv below, your claim will be settled using the applicable DF's for unsold production unless you elect in writing to delay settlement of your claim for up to 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP.
- b. If you have sold units produced by the manufacturer during the period of time covered by the recall, you must provide written notification to the manufacturer within 60 days of the calendar date for the EOIP, stating the quantity of units sold, the date of sale, and the name of the purchaser. Failure to provide such notification may result in denial of your claim.
- c. If you have sold units produced by the manufacturer during the period of time covered by the recall, you must provide written notification to the manufacturer within 60 days of the calendar date for the EOIP, stating the quantity of units sold, the date of sale, and the name of the purchaser. Failure to provide such notification may result in denial of your claim.
- d. For any production sold* to other than a disinterested third party, or that is not sold 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, we will settle your claim using the applicable DF's.
- e. If you have sold units produced by the manufacturer during the period of time covered by the recall, you must provide written notification to the manufacturer within 60 days of the calendar date for the EOIP, stating the quantity of units sold, the date of sale, and the name of the purchaser. Failure to provide such notification may result in denial of your claim.
- f. If you have sold units produced by the manufacturer during the period of time covered by the recall, you must provide written notification to the manufacturer within 60 days of the calendar date for the EOIP, stating the quantity of units sold, the date of sale, and the name of the purchaser. Failure to provide such notification may result in denial of your claim.
- g. If you have sold units produced by the manufacturer during the period of time covered by the recall, you must provide written notification to the manufacturer within 60 days of the calendar date for the EOIP, stating the quantity of units sold, the date of sale, and the name of the purchaser.
