General

Contact your agent regarding possible premium discounts, options, and/or additional coverage that may be available.

Corn planted on acreage following a crop that has been prevented from being planted will not be considered a cover crop and will be considered a crop planted for harvest.

Insurance Availability

Any fall planted acreage on which seed is spread onto the soil surface by any method (e.g. airplane or otherwise broadcast seeded) and is subsequently mechanically incorporated into the soil, will be insurable only if you request an inspection for this acreage within 72 hours after the final planting date or within 72 hours after you complete incorporating the seed if you plant in the late planting period, and we agree in writing that the acreage has an adequate stand to produce the yield used to determine your production guarantee. No coverage will be provided if an adequate stand is not established within 30 days after the end of the late planting period or within 30 days after the final planting date if no late planting period is applicable. Insurance will attach to acreage with an adequate stand on the date the acreage is inspected.

County: Sheridan (161)

Acres planted to the approved high yielding rye varieties listed below may be insurable under the winter type for the 2025 crop year or producers may request a higher yield by an unrated practice/type (TP) type written agreement under a new high yielding type. For the 2026 crop year moving forward, all approved high yielding varieties will transition to the high yielding type and be insurable only by written agreement. The high yielding characteristic of these varieties will be considered; higher yield offers may be approved as part of the written agreement. Written agreement requests must contain documentation (e.g. seed purchase receipt) of the high yielding variety(ies) the producer is planting.

Bono, Serafino, Tayo, Receptor, Brasetto, SU Performer, SU Cossani; additional hybrid varieties will be considered with at least two years of trial yield data results and an approved agricultural expert recommendations as required by the Regional Office.
