General

Optional unit division is NOT available by section or section equivalent. Optional unit division is available based on Farm Serial Number (FSN) and any other method specified in the Basic Provisions or Crop Provisions except section or section equivalent. To be eligible for the available methods of optional unit division, you must meet all applicable requirements.

Contact your agent regarding possible premium discounts, options, and/or additional coverage that may be available.

Corn planted on acreage following a crop that has been prevented from being planted will not be considered a cover crop and will be considered a crop planted for harvest.

Date

In lieu of the definition of late planting period in section 1 of the Basic Provisions, please refer to the End Of Late Planting Period Date.

Premium

Any acreage designated as unrated on the actuarial map will be insurable only by written agreement. Contact your crop insurance agent by the sales closing date to determine eligibility requirements.

Insurance Availability

Insurance shall attach to a crop following a cover crop when the cover crop meets the definition provided in the Basic Provisions, was planted within the last 12 months, and is managed and terminated according to NRCS Cover Crop Termination Guidelines. The Guidelines include information on cover crops and crop insurance, Good Farming Practices for cover crops, and termination information and exceptions, which can be found at <https://www.rma.usda.gov/en/Topics/Cover-Crops>.

In addition to Section 35 of the Basic Provisions, if you elect to obtain a Farm Service Agency Graze-Out Payment for acres of this crop grazed by livestock and not otherwise harvested, you are not eligible for an indemnity.

automatic 30 day extension will be allowed only for the purpose of submitting your claim for indemnity, unless an extension of time to harvest has been granted or a delay in measurement of farm stored production has been elected under the general statements below.

For production qualifying for quality adjustment containing substances or conditions that are injurious to human or animal health will be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Basic Provisions.

- a. If the producer elects to delay settlement of the claim for up to 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, the claimant must submit a written statement to the insurer within the 60-day period stating the reasons for the delay and the date when the claimant expects to receive payment from the third party. If the claimant does not submit a written statement within the 60-day period, the claimant will be deemed to have elected not to delay settlement of the claim.
- b. Sections C1 or C2 and Section B below, the DF will be determined by adding the applicable DFs from Section B to the applicable DFs from Sections C1 or C2.
- c. If the producer elects to delay settlement of the claim for up to 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, the claimant must submit a written statement to the insurer within the 60-day period stating the reasons for the delay and the date when the claimant expects to receive payment from the third party. If the claimant does not submit a written statement within the 60-day period, the claimant will be deemed to have elected not to delay settlement of the claim.

Á

1. OPTION TO DELAY CLAIM SETTLEMENT

- a. On the date of final inspection for the unit, if any of your unsold***** production qualifies for quality adjustment under sections B and/or C1 or C2a ii and C2a iv below, your claim will be settled using the applicable DF's for unsold production unless you elect in writing to delay settlement of your claim for up to 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP.
- b. If the producer elects to delay settlement of the claim for up to 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, the claimant must submit a written statement to the insurer within the 60-day period stating the reasons for the delay and the date when the claimant expects to receive payment from the third party. If the claimant does not submit a written statement within the 60-day period, the claimant will be deemed to have elected not to delay settlement of the claim.
- c. If the producer elects to delay settlement of the claim for up to 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, the claimant must submit a written statement to the insurer within the 60-day period stating the reasons for the delay and the date when the claimant expects to receive payment from the third party. If the claimant does not submit a written statement within the 60-day period, the claimant will be deemed to have elected not to delay settlement of the claim.
- d. For any production sold**** to other than a disinterested third party**, or that is not sold 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, we will settle your claim using the applicable DFs.
- e. If the producer elects to delay settlement of the claim for up to 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, the claimant must submit a written statement to the insurer within the 60-day period stating the reasons for the delay and the date when the claimant expects to receive payment from the third party. If the claimant does not submit a written statement within the 60-day period, the claimant will be deemed to have elected not to delay settlement of the claim.
- f. If the producer elects to delay settlement of the claim for up to 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, the claimant must submit a written statement to the insurer within the 60-day period stating the reasons for the delay and the date when the claimant expects to receive payment from the third party.
