General

Optional unit division is NOT available by section or section equivalent. Optional unit division is available based on FSA farm number and any other method specified in the Basic Provisions or Crop Provisions except section or section equivalent. To be eligible for the available methods of optional unit division, you must meet all applicable requirements.

Contact your agent regarding possible premium discounts, options, and/or additional coverage that may be available.

Corn planted on acreage following a crop that has been prevented from being planted will not be considered a cover crop and will be considered a crop planted for harvest.

Date

In lieu of the definition of late planting period in section 1 of the Basic Provisions, please refer to the End Of Late Planting Period Date.

automatic 30 day extension will be allowed only for the purpose of submitting your claim for indemnity, unless an extension of time to harvest has been granted or a delay in measurement of farm stored production has been elected under the general statements below.

The DF for production qualifying for quality adjustment containing substances or conditions that are injurious to human or animal health will be determined in accordance with the following:

- a. Sections C1 or C2 and Section A below, the DF will be determined by adding the applicable DFs from Section A to the applicable DFs from Sections C1 or C2.
- b. If the production is sold to a disinterested third party during this delay, your claim will be settled using the Reduction In Value (RIV) as outlined below, unless the production is sold to a disinterested third party within 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP.
- c. If the production is sold to a disinterested third party within 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, we will settle your claim using the applicable DFs.

1. OPTION TO DELAY CLAIM SETTLEMENT:

- a. On the date of final inspection for the unit, if any of your unsold* production qualifies for quality adjustment under sections B and/or C1 or C2a ii and C2a iv below, your claim will be settled using the applicable DFs for unsold production unless you elect in writing to delay settlement of your claim for up to 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP.
- b. If you sell the production to a disinterested third party during this delay, your claim will be settled using the Reduction In Value (RIV) as outlined below, unless the production is sold to a disinterested third party within 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP.
- c. If the production is sold to a disinterested third party within 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, we will settle your claim using the applicable DFs.
- d. For any production sold* to other than a disinterested third party, or that is not sold 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, we will settle your claim using the applicable DFs.
- e. If the production is later sold, we will not recalculate or adjust your claim for indemnity.
- f. If the production is sold to a disinterested third party during this delay, your claim will be settled using the Reduction In Value (RIV) as outlined below, unless the production is sold to a disinterested third party within 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP.
- g. If the production is sold to a disinterested third party within 60 days after the calendar date for the EOIP, we will settle your claim using the applicable DFs.

Only when it has been determined that the production qualifies for quality adjustment will the provisions in this Quality Adjustment Statement apply, otherwise this SP statement does not supersede the provisions contained in section 14(e) in the Basic Provisions.
